

In his role as Partner at Edgar Development, Henry has broad expertise in all facets of mixed-use multi-family development, with a specialization in purpose-built rental apartments. Managing the Edmonton office, Henry oversees multiple development projects and their respective teams, and is instrumental in creating and implementing the vision of each project that he leads. Henry also guides acquisitions, entitlements, and stakeholder engagement.

Henry holds a Bachelor of Commerce in Urban Land Economics from the University of British Columbia